The Summer School aims at providing participants with an in-depth understanding of the legal rules governing international contracts and the specific techniques of international contract-drafting. The course will deal with the different sources of law applicable to international contracts, as well as with a number of selected substantive issues, and relevant model contract clauses, of primary relevance in international contract practice.

Target group and prerequisites for admission

The School is addressed to 2nd-level degree and PhD students, as well as to legal professionals and other business operators involved in international contract practice. A good level of English is a fundamental prerequisite for admission.

Instructors

Instructors will include top-level academics and professionals in the field, such as: Prof. Ronald A. Brand (University of Pittsburgh, School of Law, US Delegate at the Hague Conference of Private International Law), Prof. Petros Mavroidis (Columbia Law School, New York and University of Neuchâtel), Prof. Franco Ferrari (Univ. of Verona, former Legal Officer at Uncitral), Prof. Stefano Giubboni (Univ. of Perugia) and others, as well as several professors from Bologna Law School teaching in the field of transnational contract practice.

Credits and evaluation

Students attending the School will be granted 4 CFU. Participation to the programme shall grant up to 24 credits assignable to lawyers enrolled in any Italian Bar association, under Art. 3 of the Statute of July 13, 2007 approved by the Consiglio Nazionale Forense, governing lawyers' duties of continuing legal education.

General Information

Classes will meet at the Faculty of Law in Ravenna every day from Monday to Friday, six to eight hours per day, up to a total weekly amount of 32 hours. All classes will be in English.

Admission

Applications should be sent only via e-mail to the following e-mail address: master@fondazioneflaminia.it with a CV accompanied by a cover letter not later than May 31, 2009.

Participants will be selected on the basis of their curricula and their motivation as expressed in the cover letter. A good level of English is a mandatory prerequisite for admission. Late applications may be considered, depending on the number and eligibility of the applications already received.

Cancellation policy: cancellation will be possible without any charges by May 31, 2009; for cancellations made after May 31, 2009 but before the beginning of the School, a 20% cancellation fee may apply".
